

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

A FIRST-CLASS CHRISTMAS PRESENT

What could be better for that boy of yours than a Y. M. C. A. membership that will last a whole year as a supplemental Christmas present? He will be ever reminded of your gift by the good times he enjoys each week in the gymnasium classes and game rooms. And then from your standpoint, what better place could he go for his amusement than that place which is always under Christian influence that stands for the building of character?

That is the way one man felt about it as he took out a membership for a boy in whom he was interested.

Investigate before January 1st, and help your boy or some other boy start the year right.

KEEP THE ELEVATOR RISING.

If your membership expires in January, don't fail to renew as soon as you receive your notice. If every one of our present members would realize it as his personal responsibility to do this our total will continue to rise because of the endless chain of new members always being added to our roll.

BOWL AND KEEP FIT.

New Pits in Our Alleys Greatly Add to the Pleasure of Bowling.

No more are we bothered by excessive (!) moisture in the pits of the bowling alleys. The drain has been cleaned out and is now protected by a covering. A new slat floor has been placed under the mats and they are now as dry as punk, even after a rainfall of many hours' duration.

The dry pits will enable us to keep the beds of the alleys in much better shape and make bowling more enjoyable.

Members are urged to bring their friends along and try their hand at bowling.

Non-members are urged to stop in during Christmas week, when the privileges of the building are extended to all.

DON'T FORGET THE NEW YEAR'S DAY OPEN HOUSE.

The full announcement of program, etc., will be found in another column of this paper. You are all invited to spend part of the afternoon or evening with us.

This is a specially good opportunity for those unacquainted with our building and work to look us over.

THOSE SLIDES HAVE ARRIVED AT LAST.

Those slides for the lectures, about which we have been talking for some time, have arrived at last. We hope to announce the dates for these lectures within the next week or two. Watch for this announcement.

THE COMPLETE VICTORY.

The sword of righteousness has now laid low
That fierce ambition which the sword begot;
A peaceful world, quick-armored, crushed a foe
Whose soul had shriveled 'neath the monstrous thought
That aught which can be taken by the sword
Is military zealot's just reward.

This martial fetish breeds a hungry horde
Of titled henchmen—parasitic band—
To whom pursuits of peace do not afford
Indulgence which perverted tastes demand,
Till war brings hope of higher rank, and loot,
Excuse for plunder, passions of the brute!

And so these soldiers-by-profession wait
The call of him who dreams of world domain;
They, trained for cruel war, sow seeds of hate,
Entice the people with false hope of gain,
Or make of them ambition's pawns and tools—
Till these, too late, discover they are fools!

The autocrat, into a monster grown,
Whose boast of conquest threatens half the world,
Is thrust, forever hated, from his throne,
His leaders whipped, his legions backward hurled.
On his foul deeds stern retribution falls—
Oblivion sure; perhaps dark prison walls!

On him and on his heirs, let sentence pass;
His kultur propagandists be despised;
The junkers and the military class
Long schemed for war—the press all subsidized.
But now the war lord and his guilty train
Shall face a jury of the millions slain!

In freedom's name we plucked the serpent's fangs—
Crushed military despotism's spawn!
Grant, then, the conquered people—driven gangs—
The human right to rise in freedom's dawn;
Teach these misguided souls to build anew—
The war is won; Peace hath her victories, too!

5% ADDITIONAL TAX

The decision rendered by the Public Service Commission in favor of the Springfield Water Co. against the boroughs in the matter of fire service, puts an additional expense on the Borough of Narberth which will have to be met by an increase of 5% assessment on the present values.

This will give enough revenue to cover this additional expense without being a hardship on the taxpayers.

It is reported that Ponce Burkhardt has started a correspondence course in tennis for the members of a well-known tribe of Eskimos up in Labrador. Perhaps he'll tell us something about it at the Tennis Dinner, at Elm Hall, Saturday evening, January 11.

THE FIRESIDE

Did you receive your "Thank Box"? If not, notify Edw. S. Haws.

Have you paid your War Chest pledge?

Tennis players, attention! Big celebration at Elm Hall, Saturday evening, January 11.

"Something doing" in the Presbyterian Church next Tuesday night every minute from 8.30 to midnight.

Don't forget the little Thank Box. It will demonstrate how thankful we are for what the boys have done.

Reserve the evening of December 31 for that "Watch Night Meeting" in the Presbyterian Church.

January 15, 1919, is the day set for the collection of the Thank Boxes. Our boys did their part, let us show our appreciation in a substantial way.

Don't forget to send your name in as a member of the Civic Association. Voting member $1.00, sustaining member $5.00. Cheap at twice the amount.

Be on hand to enjoy the big surprise, tennis players, at the Victory Dinner and Dance of the Narberth Tennis Association at Elm Hall, Saturday evening, January 11.

The tickets for the play to be given by members of the Sophomore Class are going. Be sure and get yours quick. Ask the Sophomores for them. They'll sell you as many as you want for 25 cents apiece.

Major George W. Braden will address the meeting in the Presbyterian Church next Tuesday evening. He will speak of some of the humorous sides of the war as well as the more serious phases.

Some of the Christmas music, which was so greatly enjoyed in the Presbyterian Church last Sunday, will be repeated at the meetings to-morrow. Mrs. T. O. Lane will preside at the organ.

Mrs. McConnell, an elocutionist of some note, who has recently moved to Narberth, will give several readings at the Watch Night meeting in the Presbyterian Church next Tuesday evening.

"The Oxford Affair" is going to be the best showing of home talent this town has ever seen. Don't make any other engagements for the evening of January 4th. Remember, the proceeds are for a good cause, the Junior Red Cross.

Mr. Woolnough, who has sung so acceptably on several occasions in the Presbyterian Choir, is expected to come over from his home in New York City and entertain us with both songs and readings at the Watch Night meeting next Tuesday, in the Presbyterian Church.

Everything Ready for the Big Tennis Dinner--Award of Prizes, Surprise Party and Dance

THE CELEBRATION WILL BE HELD SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 11, AT ELM HALL.

There's a big evening ahead for the members of the Narberth Tennis Association. The celebration, a Victory Dinner and Dance, will take place Saturday evening, January 11, at Elm Hall.

First will come the dinner, then the awarding of the prizes won in the annual tournament, then a special entertainment feature, and then the dance. The Committee in charge of the affair, headed by Chairman Robert Pattison, promises that the evening will be by far the best of any of the parties ever given by the Tennis Association.

Members who have not yet sent in their acceptances are urged to get in touch with the Committee immediately.

Those who are on the "inside" of the plans say that any member that misses the celebration is sure going to regret it. They refuse absolutely to tell what the surprise is going to be, but insist that there are a lot of big laughs coming to everybody, and that the evening is going to be one that will long be remembered.

Remember, members of the Tennis Association: Big dinner, awarding of prizes, extra and extraordinary entertainment feature and a dance, Saturday evening, January 11, at Elm Hall.

EDITORIAL

During this delightful holiday season, let us keep in mind our soldier and sailor boys, and contribute generously through the Thank Boxes, provided by the Home Guard.

If this mild weather continues, Old King Coal, like other autocratic potentates, will be compelled to step down and out. The light consumption of fuel during December has doubtless enabled the coal operators to accumulate a fair stock, and we will be spared a repetition of last winter's discontent.

A prominent German newspaper, in commenting on the fact that the crew of U-Boat No. 9, which had sunk three British battleships, had accepted $125 each rather than keep the boat, bitterly laments that the German people have sacrificed the last shred of national self-respect and honor. Admiral Beatty, with the innate chivalry of a generous victor, had given them the opportunity of retaining the boat as a memento of their undersea prowess. The editor sadly reflects that they can sink no lower than this, in the estimation of the world. This seems to be the first open confession and realization of what they have done to merit the condemnation of the rest of the world. The crimes committed in the name of war are the logical outcome of the pernicious teachings of the madman, Nietzsche. That some of them realize this, is the first hopeful sign of the possibility of their regeneration as a people.

There has been a great deal of inconsiderate criticism of President Wilson in connection with his visit to Europe, and in advance of the actual beginning of peace negotiations. The Marquis de Chambrun, Vice-President of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the French Chamber of Deputies, and a grandson of General Lafayette, deplors this. He writes that "echoes of this party criticism have only struck an answering chord among a few whose aims are not in harmony with democratic institutions and ideas of progress. We are in the presence of something far greater than party antagonism or jealousies which arise from petty motives. The President of the United States has crossed the seas, and the power of his nation is with him. Towards him the peoples of Europe have turned their eyes, still wet with the tears of grief and anguish. . . . The men of all classes realize that the ideals of President Wilson offer the strongest guarantee against a renewal of the crime so disastrous to humanity. All cry out to him. . . . 'We expect you to counsel us how to establish justice, to secure tranquility, to promote general welfare, to secure the blessings of liberty. . . . The new world is qualified to give advice and example to the old.'"

These words of the distinguished French statesman, quoted from the Philadelphia Press, should be taken to heart by all. Let us not belittle the great mission of our President by hasty criticism, that will only reflect small party jealousies on this side of the Atlantic, and tend to lessen the dignity of our role as the chief parties in the peace conference about to be held.

MEMORIAL TO OUR SOLDIER AND SAILOR BOYS.

The movement to create a Memorial Fund for our soldier and sailor boys is well under way. The boxes prepared by the Narberth Home Guard have been distributed to every home, and are to be called for on or about January 15th next. As stated on these boxes, the idea is to provide means to give our boys a royal welcome, and start a memorial fund. The money collected in this way is to be the nucleus of a larger fund, the collection of which will be left until the plan for a permanent memorial takes more definite shape. This will be discussed by a general committee, to be composed of representatives of every organization in the town, including all the churches, the Y. M. C. A., Home Guard, Fire Company, Community Club, Council, Tennis Club, various organizations of the ladies,—in fact, every one of our many associations. In this way, a thorough presentation and discussion of the various plans that have been suggested will be made possible.

It is expected that this general committee will be organized within a very short time. Doubtless there will be opportunities for any one who has ideas on this subject to submit them for the consideration of the committee. The underlying thought is to create such a memorial as will be in every way dignified and worthy, and which will satisfactorily represent the wishes of the majority of our residents.

Meanwhile, the public can help matters along very much by a liberal initial offering through the medium of the Thank Boxes. The response to this first appeal will show whether or not the town, as a whole, is in sympathy with the general idea. Narberth's record in the past has been so excellent, when any patriotic movement has been undertaken, that we have little doubt regarding a prompt and generous response to this appeal.

GOVERNMENT WILL ASSIST WAR WORKERS TO FIND NEW JOBS.

Washington, D. C., December 26, 1918. —The thousands of civilian war workers in the Government service who will soon be dismissed because their services are no longer needed will be assisted in finding re-employment through plans now being arranged by the United States Civil Service Commission.

On the recommendation of the Civil Service Commission the President issued on November 29 an executive order which provides that the names of persons in the competitive classified civil service with unrestricted status who were appointed either permanently or probationally prior to the date of the order, who have served less than three years, who are separated from the service because of a reduction of force, and who are recommended for further employment by the Government because of demonstrated efficiency in the office from which they are separated will, upon request, be entered by the Civil Service Commission upon appropriate eligible registers for reappointment, eligibility thereon to continue for one year from the date of separation. The re-employment registers thus established will be used so far as is practicable for filling positions in the Government service.

It is expected, however, that there will be a surplus of eligibles on these re-employment registers, and in order that those who cannot be replaced in the Government service may find positions in private employ, the Civil Service Commission has asked the co-operation of the Department of Labor in the work of finding suitable employment in private establishments for dismissed war workers who cannot be further employed by the Government.

It is the view of the Civil Service Commission that the machinery of the Government should be used to the fullest extent in finding employment for the war workers, for it is realized that a considerable number of them entered the Government service at some personal sacrifice to help with the war program.

To the Editor of Our Town:

Last Wednesday some one stole one of the two American flags which we had draped on the rail of our front porch. Will you be good enough to thank the thief through your columns for having left us one flag?

GEO. I. SEMEL.

To the Editor of Our Town:

We do not know to which member of the Main Line Fishing Club the following poem applies, but we are under the impression that the fisherman lives on Chestnut avenue, or possibly the upper end of Essex avenue.

"Who's the stranger, mother dear?
Look, he knows us—ain't he queer!"
"Hush, my own, don't look so wild;
He's your father, dearest child."
"He's my father? No such thing;
Father died away last spring."
"Father didn't die, you dub!
Father joined a fishing club.
But they've closed the club, so he
Has no place to go, you see.
No place left for him to roam;
That is why he's coming home.
Kiss him—he won't bite you, child;
All them fishing guys look wild."

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

Some people say that the automobile keeps people from church. I contend, however, that the contrary is true. Here's one case at least that should sustain my contention.

The other morning, feeling the need of spiritual consolation, the Count decided he would attend divine service, but hardly felt physically able to walk the two or three blocks to the shrine. Being a regular feller, of the same determined stuff of which those Poilus are made, he managed to reach the garage where his car is kept. Once there he discovered that he had left his key at home and just as luck would have it the garage keeper was still enjoying his Sunday morning sleep, probably having been out late the night before, which is something not unusual for him. The Count proceeded to wake the sleeper and was finally successful, although this didn't result in what you might call an interchange of cordial amenities. The garage man being averse to appearing outside of his boudoir in an unshaved condition, especially on a Sunday morning, proceeded to properly prepare himself facially and sartorially before complying with the Count's impatient demand that he open the garage door. Meantime the Count was getting very nervous—waiting is such a trial, especially when you are in a hurry to get to church. He decided that a little walk would compose his nerves and also kill a little time; thereupon he started to walk around the block. Before the fastidious garage keeper appeared, the Count had, by actual measurement, covered four miles and a half. After he had gotten into his car, it just took him seven seconds to get to church. Have I not proved my case?

I hear that the Fire Company has sold out to the Borough. That means that Narberth now really has a City Hall. But what of the Home Guard Armory and, oh my gracious! what shall become of the Forum if its members are compelled to pay rent? But let's not worry about that. When everyone pays his fire dues in his rent or taxes, as will now be the case, the Borough officials will feel that they can afford to furnish quarters free to that famous and honorable aggregation of wise guys—it would be a shame to destroy the institution. If there were no Forum, where would Howard Wilson walk his dog every night?

If the secret of business success is to let others do the work, there's a lot of coming men around here. You know who I mean?

There's a great big ugly chunk of scrap iron in the railroad yard of the south side. It's been there a year or two and doesn't improve the appearance of the spot by any means. Some of the aristocratic residents of the neighborhood are getting real peevish about it. Here's a chance for the Civic Association to show some doubters that the organization is a power for good.

Wonder why relatives of the Narberth boys who are in the Army and Navy do not respond to the Red Triangle call for pictures of the soldier and sailor boys? The idea isn't a bad one and is intended as an honor to the boys from Narberth who have donned the U. S. uniform. The purpose is to place these pictures side by side on a large board, covered with glass and suitably framed. This board is to be located at the railroad station, where everybody can see it and pay homage to the lads of which Narberth is so proud. The request for pictures hasn't met with the expected ready response.

Don't you admire a tea-kettle? Although up to its neck in hot water, it sings just the same.

The solicitors for Red Cross memberships had some rather disappointing experiences. Some people acted as though a favor was being asked of them when requested to sign up and cough up a dollar. Others pretended not to be at home and didn't answer their door bells, although it was definitely known that they were very much at home. There weren't a great many of that brood, however, but we know who they were. Wonder whom they thought they were fooling?

Boy Scouts Enroll 192 Members In Red Cross Roll Call

DETAILED REPORT OF THIS COMMENDABLE EFFORT IS GIVEN HEREWITH.

Irving Dodge, Essex avenue, West—42 members from 29 houses.

Carl Metzgar, Essex avenue, East—40 members from 22 houses.

Richard Odiorne, Haverford avenue—38 members from 20 houses.

Donald Brown, Windsor avenue—28 members from 19 houses.

Palmer Swartz, above Montgomery—16 members from 20 houses.

Joseph K. Fulton, Price avenue—13 members from 18 houses.

Wayne Bond, Elm Terrace—8 members from 13 houses.

Alexander Burt, Wayne avenue—7 members from 17 houses.

These boys worked with great enthusiasm and thoroughly canvassed the territories assigned to them. No other person was authorized to enroll members on these streets, so that the above figures should indicate the total number of members from this district of Narberth (about one-fourth of the entire town), with the exception of those residents who joined in the city or in some other town.

Those boys securing 25 members earned one of the necessary ten points towards their War Work Honor. Each five members over the necessary 25 adds a mark to their credit.

Published in the interest of our Narberth Troop No. 1, by Henry M. R. Bowen, Assistant Scout Master, in charge of Scout Team during the Red Cross Roll Call.

Dinner, awarding of prizes, big surprise and dance, at Elm Hall, Saturday evening, January 11, for the members of the Narberth Tennis Association, their wives and invited guests.

The Home Guard expects to use motor trucks to collect the Thank Boxes on January 15. Here is hoping the Boxes will be so heavy they will need a couple of 5-ton trucks.

If you want to contribute a lasting living memorial to the boys in the service, join the Tree Planting Movement. Send your name to Mr. Hillegas for full particulars.

The Narberth work room will be open for work again on Tuesday the 31st, as well as New Year's Day, as the work room has a large order for pinafores for French refugee children.

Walter Shaw plans to introduce a resolution at the Tennis Dinner, Saturday evening, January 11, at Elm Hall, to provide for the appointment of a Committee on Aerial Tennis. Walter says we've got to do something with all the flying apparatus left over from the war, so why not adapt some of it to tennis?

Never before have so many great stars been shown on the screen during one week, that are offered New Year's week at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore. Commencing on Monday with Alice Brady, in "Her Great Chance," and following consecutively with Norman Talmadge in "The Forbidden City," Geraldine Farrar in "The Hell Cat," Billie Burke in "The Make Believe Wife," Ethel Clayton in "A Soul Without Windows," ending Saturday with Mary Roberts Rinehart's "The Circular Staircase," makes one of the greatest weeks in photo play entertainment to be seen on the Main Line.

There will be no ash collection on Wednesday, New Year's Day. The ashes from the houses included in the route that fall on these days will be taken up on the morning of the following day (Thursday). There will be no change of the days for the rest of the collection.

SHOEMAKERS

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, addresses, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
